

PMI Agile Certified Practitioner (PMI-ACP)[®] Examination Preparation Course

Certification Overview

The globally recognised Agile Certified Practitioner (PMI-ACP)[®] credential has been created for those who want to understand and demonstrate the professional practices of Agile project delivery.

PMI-ACP[®] is the only agile certification that requires training, experience and an examination. It is perfect for all agile team members – Project Managers, Product Owners, Scrum Masters, Business Analysts, Developers, Test Analysts, Change Leaders and more.

The PMI-ACP[®] certification is PMI's fastest growing certification and was recently listed as one of the top 10 IT management certifications to obtain by CIO.com.

Course Overview

If you are delivering projects using Agile methods, gaining this certification is a sure fire way to demonstrate the best use of the tools and techniques that are available, as well as understanding the underlying Agile mindset.
